

CAKE

JAM

BUTTER

SCONES

SPONGE CAKE

WATER

ICE TEA

ORANGE JUICE

Pour dire ce que je souhaite, je dis : "I'd like a piece of ..., please."

Pour demander un aliment poliment, je dis : "Can I have a piece of ..., please ?"

Pour refuser poliment, je dis : "No, thanks."

Pour accepter poliment, je dis : "Thank you."

a glass of...

a piece of...

UN EXEMPLE DE CONVERSATION

A : Can I have a piece of sponge cake, please ?

B : Here you are.

A : Thank you ! I'd like also one scone, please.

B : Would you like some butter and jam with your scone ?

A : No, thanks.

B : Here you are.

A : Thank you.

B : Would you like anything to drink ?

A : Yes, can I have a glass of orange juice, please ?

B : Here you are.

A : Thank you !

Pour dire ce que je souhaite, je dis :

Pour demander un aliment poliment, je dis :

Pour refuser poliment, je dis : _____

Pour accepter poliment, je dis : _____

a glass of...

a piece of...

UN EXEMPLE DE CONVERSATION

A : Can I have a piece of sponge cake, please ?

B : Here you are.

A : Thank you ! I'd like also one scone, please.

B : Would you like some butter and jam with your scone ?

A : No, thanks.

B : Here you are.

A : Thank you.

B : Would you like anything to drink ?

A : Yes, can I have a glass of orange juice, please ?

B : Here you are.

A : Thank you !

